CLUB NEWSLETTER – NOVEMBER 2024

We take this opportunity to update you with the following:-

- Does anyone have an embroidery machine and would be willing to embroider names onto club shirts?
- There are still a few outstanding vacancies / nominations / volunteers required for club positions for the AGM on Sunday, 9th February 2025 – please do consider supporting and providing services to the club positions which remain outstanding for nominations these are:
Club Secretary
Account Examiners (2)
Social Committee Chair
First Aiders (2)
Food Hygiene Officer
Child & Vulnerable Adult Protection Officers / Safeguarding Officers (2)

Please see the nomination form on the notice board in the clubhouse.

- The executive committee would like to thank all those club members who are supporting the clubs social events.
- A big thank you to Jo Sanders (and helpers) and Rose Reason (and helpers) for giving their valuable time in providing catering services e.g. roast dinners and jacket potatoes with various fillings. Thanks to all those who participate and provide setting up and clean up services in the kitchen and the clearing of the hall.
- Ian Clarke together with Kevin Merryweather have installed/replaced lighting on the outside of the clubhouse and in the smoking area to ensure that club members can safely enter and leave the premises.
- Please remember the Quiz Night on the 30th November, details are on the clubhouse noticeboard – please keep checking the noticeboard for updated social event information.
- It has been a very busy year for the executive committee – the support being received regularly from club members is noted and greatly appreciated.
